The Minstrels' Tent

Set inside the Inner Bailey, the Minstrels' Tent is where you will find The Yarnsmith of Norwich with his tales of ancient times guaranteed to delight all ages. Enjoying his medieval hospitality and sheepskin rugs, minstrels will be stopping by throughout the day with songs and tunes. As well as the impromptu shows, you can also experience the informal Chance to Meet concerts, where you can chat and ask questions about the minstrels' instruments and music. You might also meet a Plantagenet Knight!

A Chance to Meet: Piva at noon and 3pm: wynndebagge & skynntite at 2pm: Stanchester Quire at 6pm: Swyndelstock at 6.30pm.

Plus surprise shows from any of the performers as the fancy takes them!

The Master Builder's Marquee - learn to build the medieval way

Once again the Master Builder will be on hand to train apprentices in the construction of a range of small-scale medieval buildings, from the simple to the more challenging. So if you think you know your steeple from your buttress, come along and see if you are good enough to become an Apprentice in the Guild of Master Builders.

This year the Master Builder will be running scheduled sessions (he needs to have a tea break) interspersed with popular have-a-go activity sessions from the Nonimus minstrels and Stanchester Quire.

Master Builder sessions ~ 10am-11.30am, Noon-1.30pm, 2pm-3pm, 6pm-8pm

Join in with The Stanchester Quire ~ from simple rounds to seasonal songs 11.30, 3pm

Songs and Dances of Merrie England with Nonimus ~ join in the music and dance of olden times 1.30

The Master Builder's Marquee will shut at 3.30 pm and 8pm on Saturday

Note: All ages are welcomed at these activity sessions. However, young children must not be left and must be accompanied by a parent or guardian at all times.

PTO for more details of the entertainers as well as Sunday's programme

Please note ~ Ludlow Medieval Christmas Fayre reserves the right to change the programme at any time.
