Welcome to this year’s Ludlow Medieval Christmas Fayre. We’re delighted to return to the stunning setting of Ludlow’s medieval castle for another wonderful weekend of music, mirth, minstrels and more! With delicious food and drink, great shopping and a packed entertainment programme, what better way to start the festive season?

Mingle with medieval jesters and enjoy live music as you browse over 100 stalls selling quality wares, handmade gifts and seasonal products. You’re bound to find the perfect presents – and unique treats for yourself too! When you’ve worked up an appetite, why not tickle your taste buds with our tempting food and drink stalls?

With a full timetable of entertainment all weekend including music, comedy, fighting knights, theatre and puppets, the Fayre is fantastic fun for all ages!

Join in our carol singing sessions and our panto – oh yes you will! Have a go at archery and sword-fighting or why not try your hand at juggling and circus skills?

On Saturday night, the Fayre’s open until 9pm – join us as the castle comes alive with an atmospheric evening of torch-lit entertainment and mass carol singing!
What’s on at the medieval Fayre

With two dedicated stages – the Castle Garden Stage and the Market Place Stage – plus more in the Inner Bailey, there’s plenty to keep you entertained.

Whether you like fighting knights, juggling jesters or minstrels and musicians, there’s something for everyone! Check our timetable on page seven to make sure you don’t miss out on your favourite acts.

Castle Garden Stage

There’s plenty to do and plenty to see on the Castle Garden Stage including music, interactive theatre and a brand new Tournament of Knights!

Set against the dramatic outline of the 13th century keep, our new Tournament of Knights, presented by Combat Through The Ages, sees fighting knights from the House of the Dragon trade blow for blow with the House of the Lion using sword, mace and quarter staff to overcome their opponent and win the accolades of the crowd!

Everyone loves a legend and the Castle Garden will be full of them this year! The Yarnsmith of Norwich will tell the tale of Sir Gawain and the Green Knight and young visitors can help bring the legends of Robin Hood and King Richard III to life with fun, interactive shows from BZ Ents.

Theatrical fight specialist Peter Cann returns as our own Master-At-Arms to showcase his fighting moves and offer a chance for some of you to try your hand too. For the younger ones, Discover History will run their famed Sword School on Sunday morning plus there’s more bloodless action with their humorous re-creations of the battles of Ludford Bridge, Mortimer’s Cross and Agincourt over the weekend.

All this plus the trumpets, drums and fanfares of The Baggshotte Waytes, an authentic 15th century brass band with trumpets as tall as a man! And not forgetting our friendly dancing giant, Brother Sid and our top trio of jesters, Jester James, Kris Katchit and Peterkin!
Market Place Stage

The magical atmosphere of the Market Place Stage offers melodies, mirth and drama all weekend with a packed schedule of music, songs, theatre and comedy. There’s pantomime, the return of acclaimed Polish medieval band Tryzna – by popular demand! – and brand new theatre, new bands and more.

Brand new theatre in the Market Place Marquee includes Delicious Theatre’s critically acclaimed The Best Play Ever (Saturday only) fresh from 5 star reviews at the Edinburgh Fringe. Plus there’s a chance to catch The Shrewsbury Mummers, Hand to Mouth Theatre’s Piggery Jokery and our pantomime Chanticleer and the Fox – all together now, “it’s behind you!”

We’re delighted to welcome back Tryzna after their Fayre debut last year. Playing fantastic medieval tunes and often wearing masks, they cast a striking appearance to match their driving rhythms of hurdy gurdy, pipes drum and mandola.

Even if you can’t quite remember how many lords are leaping, no songsheets are required with wynndebugge’s own frantic and funny version of The Twelve Days of Christmas – with a little help from the audience of course! And it really does begin to feel a lot like Christmas when The Quire hand out the songsheets for Saturday night carol singing!

New this year, we welcome Sarah Thursfield, also known as The Medieval Tailor’s Assistant, to reveal the weird and wonderful truth of what the well-dressed medieval lady wore on her head in the light-hearted Heads and Tales.

Hands on History

Situated in the Inner Bailey, the Hands on History tent is jam-packed with a wide range of games, crafts and activities (including medieval games, castle-building and brass rubbing).

You’ll also find Kris Katchit’s Circus Skills workshops here too. Plus why not make something special to take home? You can create your own hand-written Medieval Recipe or Medieval Spell aided by The Spellwright Jean Atkin, or create a castle and catapult with Kate Johnston of Four & Twenty Arts.
Inner Bailey

Head over the drawbridge into the Inner Bailey of the castle for hands-on activities aplenty and the Master Falconer’s stunning birds of prey. Plus tall tales galore from The Yarnsmith of Norwich, St Nicholas himself, archery and a chance to try your hand at circus skills!

If you’ve ever fancied yourself as Robin Hood, see how steady your aim really is with our have-a-go archery and crossbow forest in the Inner Bailey! Or, if juggling and jesting is more your thing, check in at one of our regular Circus Skill sessions led by Ludlow favourite and stilt-walker supreme Kris Katchit.

If you love a good story, don’t forget to visit captivating teller of tales, The Yarnsmith of Norwich as he spins his stories and weaves his words into yarns for all ages.

A firm favourite at the Fayre, our Master Falconer will share his passion for his beautiful birds of prey, demonstrate their flying skills and, for the ultimate selfie, will even let you hold one on your hand!

In the beautiful Round Chapel, keep an ear out for off-the-cuff concerts by some of the many musicians at the Fayre and don’t miss out on carol singing with festival favourites, The Quire.

For those with no fear of heights, head up the steep steps of the tall tower by the drawbridge for spectacular views over Ludlow town and the surrounding hills. And don’t forget to pop in to see St Nicholas in his Christmas den too!

The Tournament of Knights!

Fighting knights return to the Fayre! Four Knights separated into two houses, Lion and Dragon, will compete against each other with sword, mace and quarter staff in combat, to discover which house will reign supreme in Ludlow Castle’s brand new tournament!

Who will be victorious, the brave and chivalrous House of the Lion, led by Sir Edward Baldwin with his faithful bannerman Sir William Varde? Or the treacherous House of the Dragon, captained by the vile Black Knight, Sir Robert de’Courtney with his bannerman the Mercenary Knight? Watch the battles and find out!
